1. Processional Hymn: To God Be The Glory

1. To God be the glory, great things He hath done;
So loved He the world that He gave us His Son,
Who yield-ed His life an atonement for sin,
And opened the life-gate that all may go in.

*Chorus: Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord,
Let the earth hear his voice!
Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord,
Let the people rejoice!
Oh come to the father, through Jesus the Son,
And give Him the glory, great things He hath done.*

2. O perfect redemption, The purchase of blood,
To every believer the promise of God;
The vilest offender who truly believes,
That moment from Jesus a pardon receives.
Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Etc.
3. Great things He hath taughts us,
Great things He hath done,
And great our rejoicing through Jesus the son
But purer, and higher, and greater will be
Our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see

2. Let us pray

3. Songs of Praise – God's Battle Axe Choir

4. Bible Reading: 1Thess. 4:13-18

13. But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.
14. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
15. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.
16. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
17. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.
18. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

5. The Life of ELDER OLUWOLE GEORGE-TAYLOR

6. Commendations/Special Presentation – God's Battle Axe Choir

7. Prayer of Thanksgiving for a life well spent

8. Thanksgiving Offering

9. Hymn: O Lord, My God, when I awesome wonder

1. O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chrous: Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!

2. When through the woods, and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.
3. And I think that God, His Son not sparing
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died, to take away my sin.
4. When Christ shall come, in shout of acclamation
To take me home, what joy shall fill my heart
And I shall bow, in joyful adoration
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art.

ELDER OLUWOLE GEORGE-TAYLOR

10. The Word

11. Special Prayers

12. Greetings/Acknowledgment/Announcement/Vote of Thanks

13. Closing Prayers

14. Recessional Hymn: The Upward Way

1. I'm pressing on the upward way,
New heights I'm gaining everyday,
Still praying as I onward bound,
Lord, plant my feet on higher ground.

*Chorus: Lord, lift me up and let me stand
By faith on heaven's table-land
Where love and joy, and light abound
Lord plant my feet on higher ground*

2. My heart has no desire to stay
Where doubts arise, and fears dismay
Though some may dwell where these abound
My constant aim is higher ground
3. Beyond the mist I fain would rise
To rest beneath unclouded skies
Above earth's turmoil peace is found
By those who dwell on higher ground
4. I long to scale the utmost height
Though rough the way, and hard the fight
My song while climbing, shall resound
Lord lead me on to higher ground
5. Lord, lead me up the mountain side
I dare not climb without my guide;
And, heaven gain, I'll gaze around,
With grateful heart from higher ground

Interment

1. Let us pray

2. Hymn: Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found.
Was blind, but now I see.
2. "Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved,
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!
3. Through many danger, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home.
4. Yes, when this heart and flesh shall fail
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess within the veil
A life of joy and peace.

3. Last words

4. Hymn: Rock of Ages

1. Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood
From Thy wounded side which flowed
Be of sin the double cure;
Save me from its guilt and power.
2. Not the labours of my hands
Can fulfill Thy law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone,
Thou must save, and Thou alone.
3. Nothing in my hand I bring;
Simply to Thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress;
Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.
4. While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me
Let me hide myself in Thee.

4. Final Prayers

ELDER OLUWOLE GEORGE-TAYLOR

Biography of ELDER OLUWOLE AKANNI GEORGE-TAYLOR

Oluwole Akanni George-Taylor was born on the 13th February 1948, to the late Chief Nathaniel Oluwemimo George-Taylor and Mrs. Adeola Abeke George-Taylor (Sweetie). He started his primary school at Baptist School, Apapa Road, Ebute Metta, Lagos in January 1953, and later on, he moved to Ibadan in 1958 with his Dad, who was then the Chief Industrial Officer, Ministry of Trade and Industry of the Western Region of Nigeria. He continued his primary school education at Methodist School, Akintola Road, Ibadan. After his primary education, he proceeded to the prestigious Mayflower School, Ikene, Ogun State, in 1961 for his secondary education.

Thereafter, he started working with the then Old Western Region of Nigeria Government and was posted to a company in Badagry, and later, he was sent to the company's head office in Italy. He worked for a while before returning to Lagos, Nigeria. Upon his return to the country, he joined another company that produce paper products as a salesman. He then proceeded to attend a Technical College in Lagos, where he learnt the skills of craftsmanship in Building Construction. After he developed a passion for building construction as a result of the magnificent architectural style and designs of building structures he saw while working in Italy. After passing out of college, he decided to settle down in Ibadan, a place he chose as home. He worked at different times with different Civil Engineering and Building Construction Companies in Ibadan, such as Abdullahi & Awomolo Nigeria Limited and Alhaji Oliyide & Sons Limited, just to mention a few, where he was involved in some Public & government building projects built around the Ibadan metropolis and across states in Nigeria. He later started his own company, Wole George-Taylor & Co., a general merchant and building contractor.

In 1977, he got married to his beautiful wife, Abimbola Boluwatife George-Taylor (nee Akeredolu-Ale) in Ibadan, the capital of Oyo State. They were both blessed with Children and many Grandchildren. Among his circle of friends, he was fondly called a nickname, "007", after his favorite movie actor in the seventies, Roger Moore, also known as "James Bond", who starred in the movie, The Spy Who Loved Me. Among his siblings, they called him a nickname, "Dganga himself." May God Almighty grant him eternal rest through Jesus Christ. Amen.

TRIBUTES

Rest on my dearest husband, you are greatly missed, Akanni Iso!

Mrs Bimbola George-Taylor (Wife)

Dad, you were a living lesson in courage, discipline, and resilience. From sunrise to sunset, you showed me what it means to work with purpose, to face challenges without complaint, and to rise every time life knocked you down.

Your hands were rough from labor, but your heart was gentle with love. I watched you turn struggles into strength and obstacles into opportunities. You taught me that hard work isn't just about earning a living—it's about earning your self-respect. That resilience isn't about never falling, but about always getting back up.

Though you're no longer here, your legacy lives on in the way I face life: with grit, with gratitude, and with the quiet determination you ingrained in me. Every time I push through when I want to quit, every time I choose perseverance over pity, I remember how you raised me. Rest on Dad, your strength remains in me!

Mrs. Ayodele Banjo (Daughter)

Dad, we will always remember you for exactly that and so much more. Your decency, no-nonsense attitude, sincerity, sense of humor, and kind soul will remain with us forever. I miss the weekend chats, discussions on local and global politics, Life generally, especially, your favorite, Animal Planet on DSTV. Through my tears, my pain, and my darkest hour, I miss you and pray to God Almighty to continue to rest your soul. You were a great and noble man, truly the best father a son or daughter could have. Adieu, "007." – Your Son, Olawale George-Taylor

Alas! I have lost my mirror, you thought me all I have become today, thank you dad I will forever miss you, sleep well soldier till we meet again.

Olabosipo (Daughter)

Daddy, you are very dear to my heart and i miss you terribly. You gave me life, your first name, your attention, love...you gave your all. I remember when a car knocked me down as I was about crossing the road to enter my Primary School gate. You knew on the spot something had happened to me distance away, came to the school and you were the one who took me to the hospital. You and Mum are always there carrying and supporting us from childhood to adulthood! You will travel miles to see us when we were teenagers schooling out of town even at adulthood you were in Kaduna, Lagos., anywhere your children are is never too far for you. You gave us education, you pushed us to succeed...you are not only a good and loving Father to us your children, grandchildren and our spouses, you are the best Dad in the world!!!

Lots of love....Oluwole Jnr.

"In loving memory of our grandfather, my father,a remarkable individual whose legacy continues to inspire and guide us. Your wisdom, kindness, and unwavering support left an indelible mark on our lives. Though you may be gone, your memory lives on in our hearts, and we honor your life and spirit.

Afolabi George-Taylor

TRIBUTES

Death is said to be inevitable but no one has been able to quantify the grief and pain that comes with it. Oluwole my brother, I still can't come to terms with your demise, the grief and pain of your death a constant reminder of how much I miss you. God alone knows why he called you home at this time and it is His grace that grants us the fortitude to bear this painful loss. I take solace with the words that "to live in the hearts of those we live behind is not to die", rest on Oluwole, till we meet to part no more, rest on my dear brother.

Idowu George-Taylor (Sister)

It is with a great sense of loss to hear of the demise of my Dear Uncle Oluwole Nathaniel George-Taylor. Life throws unexpected curves and still we journey on, taking solace that the good Lord will take care of us while we are alive and when we leave this earth.

My uncles presence lives on in the stories, the laughter, and the love that lives on through those who knew him. He left his mark not just in moments, but in the way people speak about him: with warmth, respect, and deep affection. That alone tells us everything we need to know about the kind of man he was.

Today, I honor him, not just for the life he lived, but for the legacy he left behind in my cousins.
Rest well, Uncle. You are missed, and you are remembered.

Dr. Bukky George-Taylor

In Loving Memory of My Uncle

I want to take a moment to honour the life of my uncle. He was a part of our family's story especially when growing up as a kid in Kaduna. He will be remembered for the impact he had on those who knew him well. I send my heartfelt condolences to everyone who loved and cherished him. May he rest in eternal peace.

From Mrs Ayo Lawal (nee George-Taylor)

Uncle Wole, you were a quiet strength in our lives — wise, kind, and always full of warmth. Your presence brought calm, your words carried weight, and your laughter was a comfort to me. Though you're gone, your legacy of love, humility, and integrity lives on in all of us. Rest well, sir. You will always be remembered. From Gbenga George-Taylor

You were more than a father-in-law to me, I never knew your time has come, we talked like never before few days to your demise. Thanks for all the love sir.

Muritala Adekunle Yusuf (Son-in-Law)

Papa, who will call me Olori mi in every conversation? Who should I discuss politics and the state of Nigeria with? Why couldn't you have waited for me so you meet your gifts in person? I will miss you dearly. You were the best father in law ever and I thank you for loving and accepting me fully. Till the day we meet to part no more, please continue to rest in the bosom of the Lord.

Desola George-Taylor (Daughter-in-Law)

"To my father-in-law, a pillar of strength, wisdom, and love. Your guidance, support, and generosity have touched countless lives. We cherish the memories and celebrate the incredible person you are. Thank you for being an amazing role model and source of inspiration."

Ruth George-Taylor (Daughter-in-Law)

T R I B U T E S

You were my gist partner; we discuss from simple to complex. Thanks for all the lessons taught .

Semilore Yusuf (Grandson)

Your gap is felt grandpa, I miss you.

Jomiloju Yusuf (Grand-daughter)

You call me "my baby" countless times, thanks for correcting me a million times. Good night grandpa.

Darasimi Yusuf (Grand-daughter)

I have not stopped crying grandpa because I know I will miss you more than anyone. Sleep well.

Laanumi Yusuf (Grand-daughter)

To our grandpapa, who loved us so freely and beautifully even before meeting us, and loved us even more after we were born, we will forever love you.

Oyinkansola, Olaoluwa and Olamiposi George-Taylor (Grand Children)

Kennie mi, iyawo mi, like you fondly call me in every conversation. You would call very early in the morning and say "My baby, I just called to hear your laughter, it makes my day bright"I still can't believe you are gone dad and I won't get to laugh or discuss Nigeria politics with you anymore. Who will remind me now that I haven't posted on WhatsApp status in a week? Who will tell me "Kennie, I just bought data, so I can watch your status, you know I'm your biggest fan, so don't stop posting"

You are so loving and full of life, even till your last days. It's unbelievable you were saying goodbye to us when you called last. I pray you rest peacefully in God's bosom and if you can read this by any means, just know I love you dad!!!

Kenny George-Taylor

"My dear brother Oluwole (AKA- Dgangan), a man who lived on his own terms. I remember growing up, ever since we met, he always showed me love, a strong, confident, outspoken, fast talking no nonsense Egbon, who in a way am a bit like, his love for his family and God can not be overstated. You always showed up for family, I pray the almighty grant you eternal peace, rest well brother, till we meet again, Amen.

Akin George-Taylor

Daddy, it's so hard to come to terms with the fact that you are no longer here with us. Thanks all you did words alone would not express my gratitude for all the sacrifice you made for me. How I wish you could stay much longer but the all-knowing God is unquestionable. May the good Lord rest your gentle soul. Fare thee well daddy.

Rev'd (Mrs) F.J. Akingbade

It was a great shock and still remains unbelievable that our dearest and a strong pillar of the church has gone to be with the Lord. It is a pain that is so unbearable and with memories that will linger forever. We give glory to God for your selflessness, sacrificial love and unwavering loyalty to the church all through your sojourn on earth. We take solace in the fact that we will meet again on resurrection morning. "Revelation 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from your eyes and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" We give glory to God for a life well spent. Good night, rest in the bosom of the Lord.

Farewell, Uncle Oluwole George-Taylor

It is with a mix of gratitude and sadness that I say farewell to Uncle Oluwole George-Taylor. I have known Uncle Oluwole since my childhood days on Darlington Street, Mokola, in Ibadan. Back then, I was quite young, but my late brother, Tokunbo, who was older and more acquainted with the George-Taylor family, always spoke fondly of them. Through him, and over the years, I came to know Uncle Olu as a man of quiet strength, and unwavering character.

We thank God for the full life he lived and the legacy of kindness, dignity, and integrity that he has left behind. His passing is a great loss, not only to his immediate family but also to the George-Taylor family as a whole

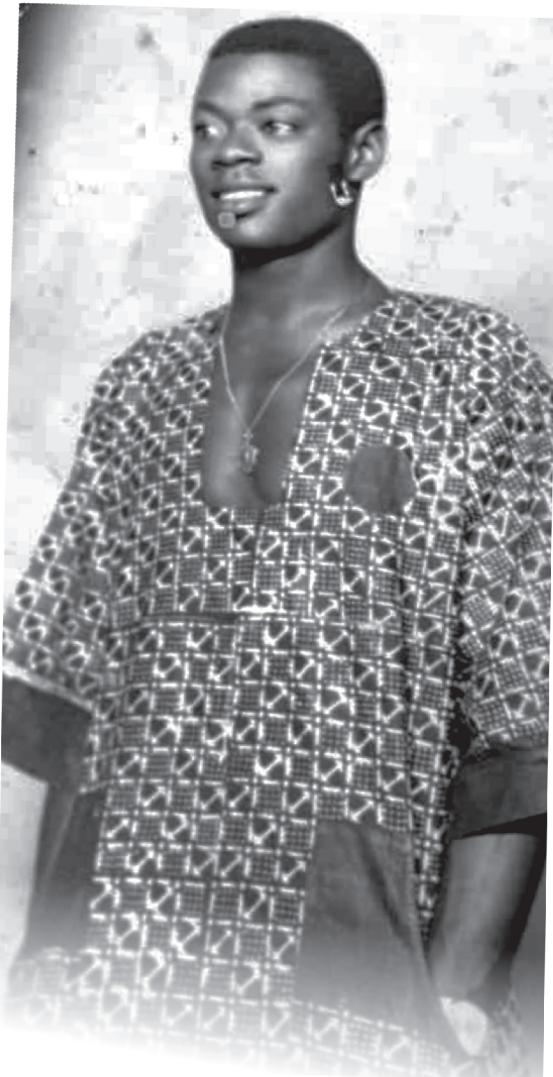

As we gather to bid him farewell, we do so not with despair, but with the peace of knowing that he has entered into the eternal rest of the Lord—a rest he so richly deserves. He has fought the good fight, he has finished the race, and he has kept the faith.

My prayer is that God, in His infinite mercy, will continue to uphold and strengthen the loved ones he has left behind. May they find comfort in the beautiful memories they shared with him and be surrounded by the grace and peace that only God can give.

Rest well, Uncle Oluwole. You will be dearly missed, but your legacy lives on.

Justice Eniola Fabamwo

(Daughter of Comfort Jadesola George-Taylor)

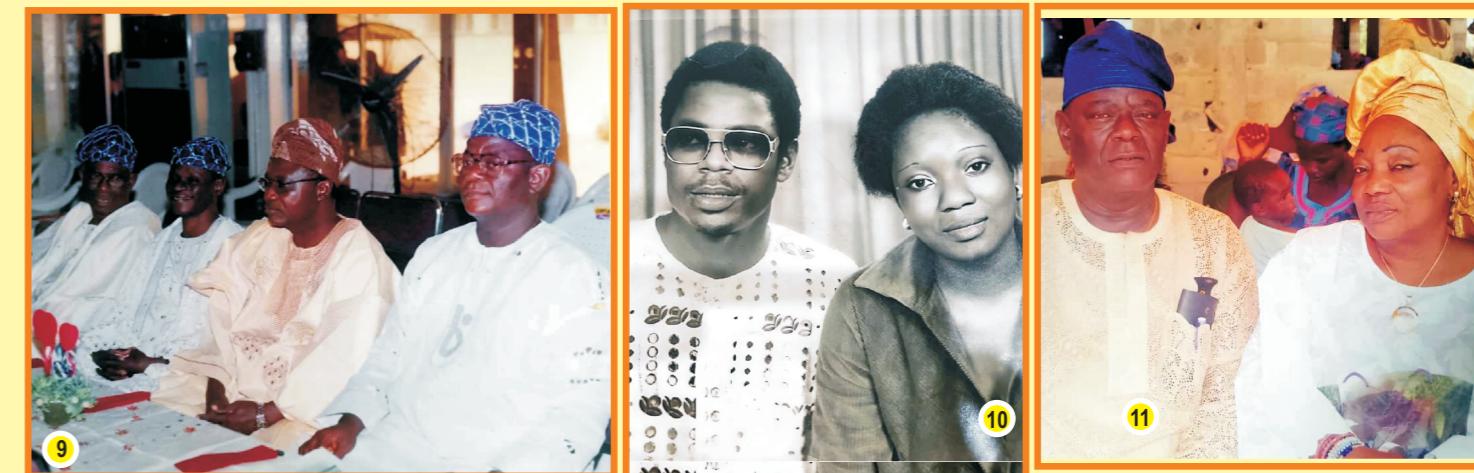

Today, we gather to remember and celebrate the life of Uncle Oluwole George-Taylor, a remarkable father, grandfather, husband, and uncle, who touched the lives of everyone he met. With a heart full of love, kindness, and generosity, he left an indelible mark on our family and community.

Farewell

As we say goodbye, we take comfort in the memories we shared with him. May his soul rest in peace, and may his legacy continue to inspire us to live with kindness, compassion, and love
